

AIPSA Membership

AIPSA membership, both individual and institutional, is on a fiscal-year basis, October 1 through September 30. Those interested in becoming Institutional Members should contact AIPSA for instructions.

Individual members receive regular announcements and correspondence pertinent to Pakistan Studies, and are eligible to participate in the Institute's programs and apply for small grants and fellowships offered by the institute. Please contact the AIPSA office directly, if you have questions on the eligibility requirements. Applicants for membership must meet the eligibility requirements and all applications will undergo a review process and will be notified once the review is complete.

Individual Membership eligibility requirements:

- Must be engaged professionally in the scholarly study of Pakistan
- Must be personally affiliated with a US education or research institution OR
- Must have been personally affiliated with a US education or research institution in the last three years
- Must submit a CV, a publication list, or a link to academia.edu page with your application for membership

To join as an individual member, fill out the form below and send it with your $25 payment (payable to American Institute of Pakistan Studies) to the address below. Or pay online: <http://www.pakistanstudies-aips.org/membership/individual>
